

MCAT* Prep Erasable Notepad "noteboard booklet" for Exam Experience Simulation

Product Instructions

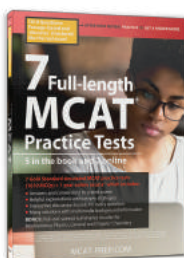

- For longer product use: Do not drench the notepad in water. Consider cleaning with a moistened cloth or paper towel with or without a multipurpose cleaner such as Windex®. Please keep the cap on the wet-erase pen when not in use to avoid premature drying out and leaking.
- You are NOT permitted to erase during the real exam. This product comes with 1 wet-erase pen (Staedtler fine point marker). You are only provided with one wet-erase pen during the real exam but you can exchange it for another one if you raise your hand. For the purpose of your mock exam simulations, you can erase this notepad after completing each practice test. If the pen seems dry, store it upright for an hour, then try writing on regular paper first, or contact help@mcats-prep.com.
- This cover page is followed by 9 graph-lined pages for you to write on during your practice exam. For noteboard strategies: www.mcat-prep.com/noteboard

Exam Instructions

- Removing your laminated erasable notepad ("noteboard booklet") from the MCAT* exam room, or erasing any part of the notepad, is an act of misconduct.
- Personal items are not permitted in the testing area.
- Eating, drinking, smoking, talking or disturbing others is not allowed in the testing area.
- Participating in misconduct or other prohibited activities may result in the invalidation of your score and candidacy.
- The erasable notepad and other materials may not be used before the start of the exam.
- Ensure that you bring your personal identification (ID) with you when exiting the exam area and returning from your breaks.
- You will be monitored at all times during the MCAT exam.

For breaks, computer problems, illness, disturbance, or if any other assistance is required during the real exam, please raise your hand and wait for the test administrator to arrive at your seating area.

Aim for a Higher MCAT Score.
